

Bruce Wood Dance Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, and Access Policy

A. STATEMENT OF COMMITMENT

The City of Dallas is made up of people from diverse communities and equity-seeking groups¹ defined as ALAANA and LGBTQIA+. Bruce Wood Dance recognizes that the changing nature of the population has implications in terms of delivering and/or providing access to its services (e.g. programming, activities, etc.).

We recognize that barriers to services exist for members of diverse communities, particularly for equity-seeking groups, and we are committed to acting as a positive force in eliminating these barriers.

To achieve this, Bruce Wood Dance will:

- Ensure that diverse communities have equitable access to its services, resources and decision-making;
- Be non-discriminatory and promote the goals of anti-racism, access, and equity; and
- Take reasonable steps to ensure its services, programs, and decision-making reflect the community it serves.

Bruce Wood Dance prohibits discrimination or harassment and protects the right to be free from hate activity based on age, ancestry, citizenship, creed (religion), color, disability, ethnic origin, family status, gender identity, level of literacy, marital status, place of origin, membership in a union or staff association, political affiliation, race, receipt of public assistance, sex, sexual orientation, or any other personal characteristic by or within the organization.

¹For the purposes of this policy, equity-seeking groups include ALAANA, Aboriginal/First Nations people, women, men, people with disabilities, racial minorities, the socio-economically disadvantaged, lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgendered persons (LGBTQIA+).

DEFINITIONS

Anti-Racism A set of practices and systems designed to eliminate racism. Racism includes racist ideologies, prejudiced attitudes, discriminatory behaviors, structural arrangements, and institutionalized practices resulting in racial inequality as well as the fallacious notion that discriminatory relations between groups are morally and scientifically justifiable.

Access The ability of or extents to which communities or residents can attain needed services and achieve full participation in the planning, development, administration and delivery of those services. Access includes client access and organizational access.

Equity Practices designed to remove systemic barriers to equality of opportunity by identifying and eliminating discriminatory policies and practices.

Discrimination The act of treating a person unequally by imposing unequal burdens or denying benefits, rather than treating a person fairly on the basis of individual merit. Discrimination is usually based upon personal prejudices and stereotypical assumptions related to at least one of the grounds set out in this Policy. It is not necessary to have an intent to discriminate under the Code. Workplace rules, policies, procedures, requirements, qualifications or factors may not be directly or intentionally discriminatory but may nonetheless have an adverse effect. This may create barriers to achievement and opportunity.

Harassment A course of conduct of comments or actions that are unwelcome or should be known to be unwelcome. A person has the right to be free of humiliating or annoying behavior that is based on one or more grounds in the Code.

ALAANA means African, Latinx, Asian, Arab, and Native American. This also includes Native Hawaiian and Pacific Islander (category as defined by the US Census Bureau). LGBTQIA+ means Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Queer, Intersex, Asexual, and other associated communities.

B. POLICY AND ACTIONS ON ANTI-RACISM, ACCESS, AND EQUITY

Governance

Bruce Wood Dance is committed to achieving representation of the diversity of the Dallas community on its Board of Directors by ensuring that it has an equitable and transparent nominations process that is communicated to all members, and that members are committed to outreach beyond the current membership if necessary to achieve this goal.

- The Nominating Committee utilizes an open and inclusive process for evaluating, recruiting and selecting nominees to the board of directors.
- Bruce Wood Dance actively seeks candidates from across the community and encourages people from all equity-seeking groups to consider a position on our board of directors.

Employment

Bruce Wood Dance is committed to achieving representation of equity-seeking groups on its staff by ensuring that members of equity-seeking communities have equitable access to employment. This includes recruitment, selection, staff development, performance evaluation, retention, promotion, termination.

- Bruce Wood Dance utilizes blind résumé review when considering applicants for employment.

- Bruce Wood Dance avoids stereotypically gendered wording in job descriptions.
- Bruce Wood Dance uses standardized employment interviews to ensure all applicants are treated the same.
- Bruce Wood Dance sets diversity goals when recruiting candidates for employment.

Bruce Wood Dance is committed to maintaining an environment where all individuals are treated with dignity and respect and are free from all forms of discriminatory treatment, behavior, or practice. Discrimination, harassment, violence, and any other form of discriminatory practices will not be tolerated by the Bruce Wood Dance. Discrimination does not have to be intentional. It can result from practices or policies that appear to be neutral but have a negative effect on groups or individuals based on race, religion, gender, etc.

- Bruce Wood Dance promotes open, effective communication, as well as clear channels for feedback to all employees.
- Bruce Wood Dance has established clear written employment policies and guidelines that address penalties for discriminatory treatment or behavior, harassment, and retaliation.
- Bruce Wood Dance has established a clear process for reporting behaviors that violate these policies.

Services

Bruce Wood Dance is committed to ensuring that its services and programs are accessible to diverse communities. This involves review of current outreach, communications, program planning, and evaluation to ensure goal is being met.

- Bruce Wood Dance cross-promotes its programs with organizations serving diverse communities and special populations such as seniors and people with disabilities.
- Bruce Wood Dance incorporates cross-sector cultural programs aimed at people with disabilities or illnesses that can be helped or ameliorated through discipline-specific therapeutic arts programs.

In addition, Bruce Wood Dance takes into consideration provision of services to disadvantaged individuals, low income persons, families in poverty, and equity-seeking communities.

- Bruce Wood Dance has developed specific programs for disadvantaged persons, including disadvantaged youth—presenting free events and events planned with specific partner organizations that focus on disadvantaged persons.
- Bruce Wood Dance has developed specific guidelines around access for seniors and people with disabilities such as priority seating, clear and open pathways for wheelchairs and mobility-assist devices, staff assistance with navigating through the building, and large print promotional materials upon request.

Training and Education

Bruce Wood Dance is committed to ensuring that those involved in the delivery of services and programs have the knowledge, understanding, and skills to work with and provide services to members of diverse communities, particularly equity-seeking communities.

- Bruce Wood Dance has provided training opportunities for all personnel to ensure their commitment to recognizing and avoiding conscious and unconscious bias towards any and all persons with whom they have contact whether patron, co-worker, subordinate, superior, board member, visitor, contract personnel, volunteer, intern, or others.
- Bruce Wood Dance has enacted clear anti-harassment, anti-retaliation, and anti-discrimination policies with specific remedies and consequences for all staff members or volunteers should the policies be violated.

Information and Communications

Bruce Wood Dance is committed to ensuring that all of its communications, including information on its services and programs, are accessible to diverse communities.

C. HUMAN RIGHTS COMPLAINT PROCEDURE

DEFINITIONS

Complainant The individual alleging the discriminatory treatment or behavior

Respondent The individual against whom the allegation of discrimination is made.

Employee For the purpose of this policy, the term employee includes employees, volunteers, contractors and consultants working with the Bruce Wood Dance.

Avenues of Complaint Complaints will be dealt with by the Executive Director. Where appropriate, the Executive Director will consult with the President of the Board of Directors. All situations in which the Executive Director has been named in a complaint will be dealt with directly by the President of the Board of Directors.

Right to Complain Individuals have the right to complain about situations they believe to be discriminatory or harassing in nature. This policy prohibits reprisals against employees because they have complained or have provided information regarding a complaint. Alleged reprisals are subject to the same complaints procedures and penalties as complaints of discrimination.

Reporting a Complaint Although individuals may first choose to make a verbal complaint, a written summary of the incident will be required. Complaints should be reported as soon as possible. If the complaint is delayed beyond three months, the complainant should outline the reason for the delay in reporting the incident(s). A letter of complaint should contain a brief account of the offensive incident(s), when it occurred, the person(s) involved, and the names of witnesses, if any. The letter should be signed and dated by the complainant.

Investigation Within three working days of receiving a complaint, the Executive Director and/or President of the Board of Directors must initiate the investigation process. As soon as possible after receiving the complaint, the Executive Director will notify the individual(s) being named in the complaint. All individuals named in the complaint have a right to reply to the allegations against them. Individuals named in the complaint as witnesses will be interviewed.

Settlement and Mediation With the consent of the complainant and the respondent, the investigator may attempt to mediate a settlement of a complaint at any point prior to, or during, an investigation. Every effort will be made to reach a settlement satisfactory to the complainant and the respondent.

Confidentiality All individuals involved with a complaint must ensure the matter remains confidential. The investigator will release information only on a need-to-know basis. Whenever possible, investigation reports are presented in a summary format without the names of witnesses.

Findings and Recommendations Once the investigation is complete, the investigator will prepare a written report summarizing investigation findings.

Final Decision The individual(s) who filed the complaint and those named in the complaint have the right to review and comment on the investigation findings with the Executive Director or the President of the Board of Directors.

Remedy A response to a founded complaint could include remedial action ranging from:

1. Requiring the respondent to provide a verbal or written apology;
2. Giving a verbal or written reprimand with a copy to the respondent's personnel file;
3. Dismissal of the respondent.

If the findings do not support the complaint, Bruce Wood Dance might:

- make a recommendation for training or better communications; or
- recommend that no further action is necessary.

It may be that no action is taken against the respondent, but there might be a need for some management or systemic activity. A person who is found to have made a frivolous or vexatious complaint may be subject to disciplinary action.

Timeframe

Complaints should be reported within three months of the incident. If the report is made after three months, an explanation of the delay should accompany the complaint. Complaints will be dealt with in a timely manner.

Records When remedial action requires discipline of an employee, a record of the disciplinary action will be placed in an individual's personnel file. All other records of the investigation will be kept separate and apart from the personnel file.
